

ANAEROBIC DIGESTION RESOURCES
TMMA

The Cecil Group, July 15, 2008, Lexington Commercial Zone Analysis and Build Out Study. Available from Planning Department.

HARVEST POWER, February, 2009, Minuteman EcoPark. Available from George Burnell.

HARVEST POWER, February 8, 2011, Incorporating High Solids Anaerobic Digestion into an Existing Composting Facility. Available from George Burnell.

CDM REPORT, March, 2011, Preliminary Evaluation of a source Separated Organics Facility at the Hartwell Avenue Landfill Site. Available from R. Beaudoin, DPW.

CDM Power Point presentation. LWV First Friday? Available from George Burnell.

MassDEP, November 23, 2012, Response to Public Comments on Draft Regulations: Building Capacity for Managing Organic Materials

Lexington DPW, Robert Beaudoin, 201 Bedford St, 8621618, rbeaudoin@lexingtonma.gov

Selectmen: Peter Kelley, advocate, 24 Forest St, Lexington 02421, 861-1546, petercjkelly@gmail.com
Deb Mauger, Chair, 38 Liberty Ave, Lexington 02420, 861-7697, debmauger@aol.com

Lexington Board of Health: Jay Flynn, 1 Hunt Rd., Lexington 02421, 781-861-7633

Economic Development Advisory Committee (EDAC), John McWeeney, 781-861-9019

Engaged Citizens:

Christopher Barnett; nationally recognized engineer, 19 Eldred St, Lexington 02420, 781-861-9979
Technical and comprehensive information.

Elizabeth Barnett: Urban Planner, 19 Eldred St, Lexington, 02420, 781-861-9979
Environmental and planning issues.

George Burnell: former Selectman, 4 Eaton Rd, Lexington, 02420, 781-862-2023, gaburnell@gmail.com
Comprehensive information, commercial development.