Ms. Coppe also worked and pushed for the World Language Committee; and (iii) Ms. Coppe was instrumental in having a Special Education Director, along with Bonnie Brodner to recruiting a Special Education Director and those are his reasons for supporting Ms. Coppe as Chair.

Mary Ann Stewart agreed with Mr. Alessandrini and absent no other nominations no discussion was needed; she worked with Margaret Coppe for a number of years and feels she does an excellent job.

Alessandro Alessandrini shared one of the positions that has divided the Committee is the Vice-Chair position. The BOS does not have this position and would like to see this position eliminated.

(Alessandrini, Crocker).

The Committee engaged in further discussion of eliminating the Vice Chair position.

Motion to not vote for a Vice Chair (Alessandrini, Stewart) The Motion was Approved (5-0)

Dr. Ash shared the required number of school days stating that he takes a secular view and suggests staying away from recognizing religious holidays. Dr. Ash suggested looking at enrollment to see if there are low attendance days.

The Chair invited public comment.

Peter Lee, 770 Waltham Street, President Chinese American Association of Lexington is grateful that this topic is being considered. Mr. Lee shared his thoughts on adding an Asian holiday to the school calendar and having a broader K-12 education to reflect the changing demographics in town. Mr. Lee feels that this would add value to the Lexington Public Schools graduates given the fact that the world is more global in nature. His is in favor of participating in that discussion moving forward and welcomes that opportunity.

Bonnie Brodner, Trotten Path, shared her thoughts on the holiday aspect. Ms. Brodner shared that when her family was looking for a community to move into, they chose Lexington because they celebrated Jewish holidays. Having a more diverse calendar might attract more diversity to town.

Katy Wipke, 53 Asbury Street, shared that she believes in separation of church and state and is not favor of adding additional religious holidays. Ms. Wipke believes that if people want to take the day off they should just take the day off.

Helen Cohen 32 Patterson Road shared that this is an exciting time for Lexington to deal with changing demographics and the Martin Luther King Service Day was a good time to make connections with others. Ms. Cohen believes there is a need to know what would need to be done to add religious holidays and having a committee to review these issues.

Tanya Morrisett, 21 Valleyfield Street wanted to know if any survey is conducted would it take into consideration staff and teachers. Tanya stated that she respects everyone religion and culture.
